The Corporation Judgeship. The following account of the meeting of the bar for the purpose of deciding upon a candidate for Judge of the Corporation Court was prepared by a participant in the

A meeting of the bar of this city, called by Mr. Albert Stuart, was held at the office of Messts. Maibury and Armstrong at 10 o'clock this morning. Nine members of the har were present in the west room of the of-Mr. Marbury was in the east of Mr. Armstrong was also present went up the street. Mr. S. F. n to say that he had no choice, metro express no choice. Mr. Jas. Caton was elected chairman, and Mr. S. G Brent secretar . As soon as the meeting was organ zed Mr. C. E. Stuart stated in effect that his personal and professional choice for Judge of the Corporation Court was Mr. A. W. Armstrong, but as he thought that the bar was equally divided be pro-nosed to withdraw from the meeting and advocate before the General Assembly the gain sof Mr. Leonard Marbury. Mr. C. E then withdrew. In a lew minutes then in the adjusting office, and while the debate was noing on Messis. Smith and Armstrong also appeared in the cast effice.
The meeting, therefore, appointed a committee consisting of Messrs, Jno. M. Johnson and Jno. H. Greene to wait upon the three gentemen in the outer office and inquire whether they proposed to take part in the The committee returned and reported that they declined to take part but gave no remova for the declination. Mr. J. M. Nor on was then unanimously remounded to the legislature for the judgship, and the me virg adjourned.

Up to this morning it was believed by the bar, generally, that Mr. Norton's friends were in the minority, but it was discovered at about 8.30 c'clock this morning that such

In reference to the foregoing the following open letter to State Senator Moore has been furnished for publication:

ALEXANDRIA, Va., Jan. 3, 1888.

Mr. R. W. Moore:
My Dear Moore—Albert Stnart criffed a bar meeting for this morning at 10 o'clock at Armstreng's effice. All the members were present except Mr. Heach, who authorized me to say be had no choice between the candidates and desired to cept Mr. Heach, who authorized me thesy he had no choice between the candidates and desired to express no choice. Judge Stuart, after the meeting was called to order, but before anything cise was done, stated that Mr. Armstrong was his personal and professional choice, and that he believed the har was evenly divide!, and he would not take part in the meeting, and he would not take part in the meeting, and he would go to the legislature and urse the appointment of Mr. Marbury. He loft the meeting. Col. Smith, Mr. Armstrong and Mr. Marbury were in the next room (Marbury's office) and a committee of two, composed of Mr. Greene and myself, were appointed to wait upon them to ascertain if they intended to take part in the meeting. I asked each of them and each of them declined to take part in the meeting. The bar recommended Norton. I believe Stuart's confuct ought not to be endorsed because it was anybody to beat Norton with him, and when he found that Norton had a majority of the bar he would not be bound by the section of the bar. I had not told any one until this morning for whom I should vote; and Stuart and Smith may have inferred I would vote for Armstrong, or that I was in doubt for whem to vote. Before the meeting Stuart come to my effice, and said that Armstrong and his friends did not want to or that I was in doubt for whem to vote. Before the meeting Stuart come to my cilico, and said that Arm trong and his friends did not want to put him up to be beaten, and wished to know for whom I would vote. Without hesitation I told him for Norton I feel sure, if I had been for Armstrong, Staart and the others would have taken part in the meeting. I think they ought to have done so, and I think they are bound by the action of the meeting as much as if they had done so. I am serve this discussion cocurred I feel that I am in any manner responsible for the same. If my opinion, and the opinion of a large majority of the bar had been taken noon the bill to fix the salary, it would not have occurred. I have read this letter to Stuart, and you may publish or use it as you see fit.

MAYOR DOWNHAM'S CHARGE TO THE Poing, while presiding at the Police Court, had the members of the police force summoned before him and addressed them as follows:

Captain Webster, Lieutenant Smith and the Member of the Police Force: tient'emen—Iu presenting myself at this court to preside and disness of the cases for trial, you are aware that it is not the first time. Aside from that, I recognize many facts before me who I by my v. tes assisted to the positions which you have eitled with credit to yourselves and honor to the community; yet it is the first time I have appeared to meet out justice in the capacity which I now occupy—that of Mayor of the city. On former occasions (as my cifice was only temporary) I h d endeavored to let my decisions be in keeping with the e in whese place I was acting, for perhaps the day only, not caring to inaugurate any new system. The time has now come, however, when my duty requires me to form and have enforced an administration of my own, which I will proceed to do as I may become impressed with the importance and necessity of changes pertaining to this office. The only suggestion I have to make to dry is this: I think there are many arrests made by the officers entirely unnecessary. You are, as I understand the law, (or should be) "conservators of the peace." As an officer, it becomes your duty to preserve the peace and protect the citizens. The office of Mayor of the city is not and never was (in my opinion) intended to be a source of revenue. I desire, therefore, that hereafter in making arrests you will consider it your duty to use reasonable diligence and vigiliance in preserving the peace without resorting to arrest, at the same time preserving the dignity of your cifice. When arrests are made, it will be my duty to inquire diligently into the nature of the charges, and I hope hi all cases there will be sufficient cause. To impose and collect fines from the poor unfortunates, who by misfortune or dissipation are brought into this court, does not often bring shout a reformation, and to commit them only incurs an additional expense, upon the community. There are many ordinances that can be enforced through the medium of the police force, that will save the direction of the content of the which I will tient'emen—In presenting myself at this court to preside and dispese of the cases for trial, you are aware that it is not the first time. THE WEEK OF PRAYER .- The union prayer meeting was held in Grace Church last The meeting was very interesting, the several ministers present making short and edifying addresses. The meeting tonight will be held in the Methodist Protest-ant Church. The following will be the topics for prayer: "Of vices prevalent throughout Christendom, such as drunkenness, impurity, profane language, and Sab-bath-breaking; of great public wrongs, such as oppressive laws, or demoralizing trades, like the opium and liquor traffics; of iuxury and the wasteful use of God's gifts by some classes of society, and among othors, lawless discontent and covetousness; of hindrances to the acceptance of the gospel by the inconsistent lives of nominal Christians; of jealousies and rivalries among brethren, of personal unfaithfulness, imperfect concernation to God, faults of pride or temper, and the worldliness and inaction which render so many believers unfruitful."

At the meeting of Lee Camp Confederate Veterana, held last night, one application for membership was received. Only routine business was transacted. A reporter of the GAZETTE on enteriog a

The failure of the northern house which supplies plate matter to a few of the Virginia papers to furnish such mrtter yesterday, put the papers dependent on the same to great inconvenience and some of them could only appear in half sheet form.

A horse attached to a dray belonging to Mr. J. Dreifus ran away on King street this evening and turned into Fairfax, smashing the sign of Messrs. Steiner & Yohe, and partially demolishing the dray. The colored driver, however, kept his seat and brought the borse to a stand in the middle of the
